

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Nafaktos Textile Industry SA recognizes its responsibilities and obligations towards natural and man-made environment, while envisioning the creation of a company whose name will become synonymous to high quality products, produced with respect to the environment.

For this purpose, Nafaktos Textile Industry SA implements an Environmental Management System in accordance with the requirements of the standard EN ISO 14001: 2015 and the relevant legislation.

The Management of Nafaktos Textile SA is committed to:

- The protection of the environment and the prevention / reduction of pollution from its activities.
- The continuous improvement of its environmental performance and its Environmental System Management.
- Minimize its environmental impact, tackling climate change, protecting biodiversity, and saving natural resources during the whole life cycle of its products.
- To comply with the legal requirements governing its operation as well as, other compliance obligations that the company has accepted.

With the development of the Environmental Management System according to EN ISO 14001: 2015 that concerns in: Production, storage, and marketing of cotton yarn the company determines the environmental parameters of its activities and develops procedures and programs for the continuous improvement of its environmental performance. In particular, the Management of Nafaktos Textile SA It aims at:

- Saving natural resources by developing a consumption monitoring system.
- Management of solid and liquid waste generated, giving priority to their reuse and recycling.
- Continuous awareness, training, and information of the staff regarding environmental Issues.

This Environmental Policy is published and communicated to all interested parties, while implemented and supported by every employee of the company.

The Chairman of the Board
Vassilios Polychronos

Edition: 1st / 11.04.2019